

BACKGROUND

In 1991, the Chinese government began to allow foreign adoption of Chinese children. To celebrate the 20th anniversary of this milestone, the Chinese government has arranged for a special opportunity for these children to visit the land of their birth.

Following the successful debut of the China Culture Trip in Summer 2006, the Overseas Chinese Affairs Office and POP's Foundation cordially invite families with adopted Chinese children to participate in the Prince of Peace China Cultural Trip this summer.

"I loved visiting the local elementary school and playing with the kids... I just want to stay longer!"

-Hannah P (age 17)

"Coming back to China has been one of the best experiences in my life ... I really enjoyed the people on the trip. I made lots of friends and met a lot of new people. I hope to come back to China when I grow up and study more of China."

-Arline B (age 14)
